

STATE OF VERMONT
EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT
A PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, without the tireless efforts of Adele Pierce, this year's Honorary Chair, the wonderful Vermont Symphony Orchestra POPS Concert on June 28th would not be taking place; and

WHEREAS, Adele Pierce planned the first POPS concert, and she has since coordinated all fifteen of these annual events, the largest fundraising efforts for the Henry Sheldon Museum of Vermont History; and

WHEREAS, for over twenty years, Adele Pierce's friendly face for visitors, coordination of special events, and superb management of the Museum shop have been signs of her deep commitment to the Museum, and reflections of her larger commitment to the Addison County community; and

WHEREAS, as Adele Pierce entrusts the coordination of future POPS concerts to her successor, we salute her many contributions to these concerts, to the Henry Sheldon Museum of Vermont History, and to preserving the heritage of Addison County.

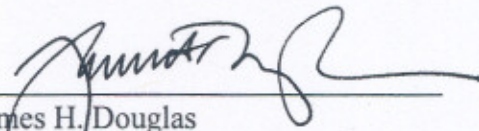

NOW, THEREFORE, I, James H. Douglas, Governor, do hereby proclaim June 28, 2007 as in Vermont.

ADELE PIERCE DAY

Given under my hand and the Great Seal of the State of Vermont this 25th day of June, A.D. 2007.

James H. Douglas
Governor

By the Governor:

Kiersten Bourgeois
Secretary of Civil and Military Affairs